

FISH

I have a spine.	I have scales and fins.
I am cold-blooded.	I lay soft eggs to reproduce.
I can breathe underwater with my gills.	I live underwater.

AMPHIBIANS

I have a spine.	I have a moist smooth skin.
I am cold-blooded.	I lay soft eggs to reproduce.
I live underwater and on land.	I breathe with my lungs and skin.

REPTILES

I have a spine.	I lay hard-shelled eggs to reproduce
I am cold-blooded.	I breathe with my lungs.
I have scales or bony plates on my skin.

BIRDS

I have a spine.	I have feathers.
I am warm-blooded.	I produce hard-shelled eggs.
I live in the air.	I have hollow bones

MAMMALS

I have a spine.	My youngs are born alive.
I am warm-blooded.	My youngs are fed with milk produced by the mother's mammary glands.
I have hair or fur.	I have more complex brain than other animals.